

Dear Universe,

May I now ask this space to be cleansed of heaviness and negativity Bringing peace & perfect harmony as we move forward two souls coming together in partnership.

May we find unity within ourselves

Cleansing our aura's

As we exchange vows

our spirit becoming anew

Freeing from the weight which sadness & discontent

Can bring.

As to carry nothing but love,

friendship,

& grace

into our marriage.

May we be grateful for blessings

Continuously manifesting health, endless love,

A strong ability to forgive

& an abundance of happiness

In passion

Love

& Light

Our hearts bright, full, complete

We move forward together.

Amen
